

The Lower Plenty Football Club presents

Breakfast with Craig Bellamy NRL Super Coach

CRAIG BELLAMY is widely regarded as one of the finest coaches in the rugby league world, with his awesome coaching credentials and man management skills tested to the limit following the sanctions delivered by the NRL as a result of the Storm's premiership in 2009.

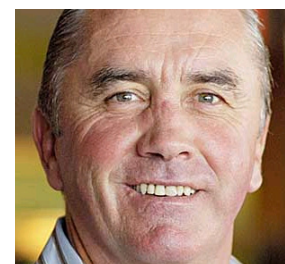

A player and coach for more than 30 years, Craig played 148 games and has coached Melbourne Storm in 231 games for an amazing 68% winning ratio since being appointed head coach in 2003.

Craig Bellamy has an unprecedented finals record with the Storm playing finals every year from 2006 to 2012 excluding 2010, making the Grand Final on five occasions and winning three Premierships along the way.

Had the Storm been able to play for points in 2010 based on their wins that season they would have made the eight and played finals.

Craig is in a league of his own for ideas, work ethic and getting the best out of his players and has a fantastic story to tell.

Hosted by TONY SHAW, an immortal of the Collingwood Football Club victory in the 1990 Grand Final and winning the Norm Smith Medal. Tony is a Collingwood Team of the Century and Hall of Fame Member and currently a media commentator on 3AW and the Fox Footy Channel.
