ROUND 4 UPDATE

This week we visit East Burwood, with only Reserves and Seniors taking the field, the Under 19s have a bye. All teams are sitting inside the four, and looking to consolidate those positions this week.

In an exciting game last week against East Doncaster, the seniors ran out winners by one point. With our poor goal conversion keeping East Doncaster in the game, it was a game saving tackle by Blane Coates in the dying minutes that kept the final result in our favour. Best players were Rhett Wilsmore, Chris Doyle, Dean Siakoulis, Brad Fowler, Cohen Howell and Sam Kassianou. Chris Doyle kicked three goals and Adam Booth took some great grabs in between his ruck stints to notch two goals. Congratulations to Will Currell for playing his first senior game.

The reserves were seriously weakened by absences and injuries, but were always in the game. The eventually lost by 22 points. Best players were Sam Trevethan, Adam Redfern, Josh Ward, Pat McKaige, Sean Lester, Haythem Elnakadi. Sam Trevethan kicked two goals.

The under 19s were also severely undermanned by absence and injury, but fought the game out well and ran out winners by 18 points. Best were Jacob Leece, Tom McGowan, Ben Chung, James Dalglish, Jordan Siriwardana and Max Roberts. Tom McGowan kicked six goals, Nathan Prior four, Ben Chung two, AJ Tilyard two and Todd Kenny two.

Upcoming club functions include our past players and life member lunch on May 17th, where we will unveil our new scoreboard and coaches' box, then the ladies' night on May 24th
