- Encourage your child to play by the rules of Keilor Football Club and the laws of the game
- Teach that enjoyment is more important than winning
- Never ridicule mistakes or losses, including opposition players and supporters – supporters are there to support not downgrade

- We expect the highest level of junior behavior both on and off the field and in any circumstance where this is not the case, severe action will be taken
- It is mandatory to assist within your child's team on at least 6 occasions throughout the season. Failure to assist may mean that your child does not play. Involvement is a vital and satisfying opportunity for both you and your child
