ROVING THE PACK

FILLING YOU IN ON ALL THE HAPPENINGS AT MUAFC

Welcome to 2008 !!!!

The Boundary Warrior hopes you had a great Christmas and New Year's Break. Now the holiday is definitely over as the tough (but rewarding) nights at training have begun.

TRAINING WRAP

A good turnout in the couple of weeks is a positive sign for everyone at MUAFC, let's hope it continues all season long. Training has now become compulsory for all Senior (First Div) and Under 18's. Make sure you are there for a 6.15pm start.

Training is always on, rain, hail or shine and will move to the gym for an indoor or pool session if the grounds are closed. It is important to note that training Warriors should still meet at the University sporting grounds, whereby they will be informed of the coach's plans.

Make sure you bring to all sessions:

- Towel
- Boardies
- Runners

*Remember, if you cant make training, contact your coach and let him know (penalty = 400m laps).

Bully has made it pretty clear that he will hand out penalties for rules not being adhered to. So here's a few of the key ones to remember:

"Footy's stop when the whistle blows"

"Put your name on the footy"

"Shepard, Shepard, Shepard"

HOW DID SOME OF THE WARRIORS SPEND AUSTRALIA DAY '08?

Gareth (U18's): "Me and my mates went out to the beach and had an excellent day".

Rove: "Went over to Astro's place for a BBQ, listened to Triple J Hot-test 100 and played Guitar Hero, which I might add, I suck at".

Popey: "Headed into the city with some mates to show some Backpackers the true meaning of Australia Day"

Rooster: "Went out on G Studs Boat and had an awesome day in the sun".

Clive Anthony's Electrical Superstores join forces with Macquarie University AFC

With the start of a new year comes a new name, new players and a new horizon for the Macquarie University Football Club. The bonus of a fresh outlook for the club is the potential for new sponsors. January is the month that has seen Clive Anthony's Electrical Superstores enter into a great partnership with the Mac Warriors for 2008 and beyond.

Lee Jefferies, Sponsorship Manager for the Warriors said "This sponsorship is a step in the right direction in securing other major sponsors for the club. With the launch of the new brand for the club the "Warriors", Clive Anthony's brings a fresh sponsor to help with financing a very successful future for the football club."

Clive Anthony's are an electrical retailer (part off the JB HiFi group) that have opened their first store in the Sydney market in the Hills centre at Castle Hill, with more stores to open in the very near future. Michael Lentern, Store Manager, said he is very excited about the partnership and he looks forward to looking after players and their families where they can.

So if you require anything for the home or business then please give Michael a call or go on out to the store and meet the crew. Under 18s player Cameron "Hollywood" Jefferies works in the store on Thursdays and Sundays and is itching to give you a deal.

Nomis

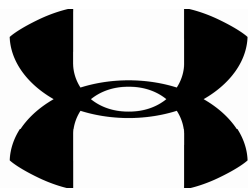

A relatively new player in football boots. A boot range designed by the former research and development president of Adidas Germany.

All boots have a genuine leather upper with the up-scale range available in Kangaroo hide for unsurpassed comfort.

This brand has incredible "first feel" sensation. The fit of these boots is second to none with a upper treatment that repels water and a cleating system that will not allow mud to congregate.

These two factors alone provide a boot that will not get heavy even during the most muddy and wet conditions.
